

Here are a few Testimonials

"I enjoy her cooking most of all. She is a great listener and I really enjoy having conversation with her at dinner table.

*I also like the neighborhood area. You can walk to grocery store and other shopping areas. I really enjoy my homestay!"
Keiko from Japan*

*"Actually, my host family is helpful for me. Clean room, nice furniture. I am satisfied with life here."
Takashi of Japan*

*"It's a very good experience to live with my host. She is a really nice woman. From her children educational background, I could know they were well educated by her. On the other way, her house is very beautiful and I have a comfortable room that is bigger than mine in Taiwan. Anyway, it's an awesome experience for me."
Dong of Taiwan*

'She is kind, talkative and very nice. She cooks well, I like her food very much!. And she always tells some culture and introduce the nice place for me to go." Ka Yan of Hong Kong

*"My host is very very nice lady. She is friendly and gives me so much useful and inspiring advise. I like her food very much.
Her house is clean. I enjoy staying with her so much!" Mak S of Hong Kong*

"My host family respects different culture and they were nice to me. On the weekends I spent time with them going to the movies together. My host mother is too busy to make meals every day, but I like cooking, so it's not a problem for me. It is good that I could have my individual time. The location is good. I could go to school riding the bike in about 15 minutes. Mayu I from Japan

*"The host family was really friendly. The host mom took me to some beautiful and famous places, which was really exciting.
I definitely enjoyed my time here." Ekaterina S from Russia*

*"My host family is perfect. Everything was good."
Anonymous from Korea*

"I like my host famiy very much becasue they are so warm. They help me as counselors. They introduced some interesting places to go. When their relatives come to the house, I joined in their conversation and enjoy myself. My *host family makes me pleased.

I like to have dinner with them and talk to them. Their cat & dogs are also sweet. Although I'm busy for studying, and I don't have enough time talking with them, they always care about me." Reiko from Japan*

"They always try to help as best as they could. They even took me to church when I wanted to go. I enjoy living with them, especially the wonderful dinner!" Hiensen from Indonesia

*"They are nice, friendly, respectful. I got to know some of their family members during Christmas".
Hardy from Singapore*

*"The homestay I live, it's a very warm family. I like them. They look like my family. We eat dinner together, talk with each other. If I have something wrong, they will help me. I think they will be my good friends."
